To Becky—
 Well, you have come a long way
 really. Just keep those grades up & be good— Best of luck
 in everything you do
 Love "Mickey" Gaynor

Dear Becky,
 It's been great fun having
 you in my English
 class. I thank you for loaning me
 some of your science
 paper, which I lost
 in the spring
 years at Libbey.

Dear Becky,
 It has been nice
 having you in my 2nd class.
 I hope we are in some room
 together next year and that you follow. Good Luck in the future.

MEMBERS OF BOARD OF EDUCATION: Left to right, seated, Mr. Thomas Bretherton, president; Mr. Raymond D. Baldwin, Mrs. Jane Kuebbeler. Standing, Mr. Wayne Shawaker, Mr. Edwin D. Dodd, vice president.

Mr. Bowsher has steadily provided Toledo with a fine public school system. His expert decisions through the years of his superintendency have time and again resolved complex educational problems in our city. In behalf of Libbey High School we seniors of 1957 wish to thank him for the acumen of his leadership.

Superintendent E. L. Bowsher

Mr. Rusie at his desk with the officers of Student Council: Pete Kakela, vice president; Judy Eisenman, secretary-treasurer; Tom Waterman, sergeant-at-arms; and Bill Stine, president.

To the students of Libbey, Mr. Rusie is much more than a principal who merely gives announcements over the public address system or makes administrative rulings. Just as his title designates, he is a "pal" to everyone. Libbeyites know that they can rely upon the warmth as well as the wisdom of his guidance.

Edelian Dedication

It is with pleasure that we dedicate the 1957 Edelian to two teachers who have faithfully served Libbey—Mrs. Beatrice Baird and Margaret A. Waite. Miss Waite's many accomplishments since coming to Libbey in 1924, have been teaching world history and American government, heading the Orientation Department, serving as adviser to the Zetaethian Literary Society, and earning a Red Cross ci-

Ever faithful, Libbey

James L. Dauer

July 8, 1940 – January 26, 1957

All of us who knew Jim and were touched by his wit and sense of humor were deeply saddened by the suddenness with which he left us. A fine example of American youth, Jim was active in his membership at St. Paul's Lutheran Church and in its young people's organization. We extend our sincere sympathy to his family.

national Honor athletes to a basketball game. Proving that Libbey can win scholastic honors, also, were society members participating in a quiz challenge with Waite here and a re-match later on in the season at the rival school. Spring events arranged by scholarship chairman, Barbara Long, and activities chairman, Ron Reinhart, included the post-induction party for new members, a Libbey-Waite roast, the Beat the Clock Show on April Fool's day, and the South Side Kiwanis Club college assembly program. To inspire underclassmen to better studies, the National Honor Society presented certificates to honor freshmen and gold pins to sophomores. Supervising the group in promoting scholarship, leadership, character, and service were Miss Jean Gilbert, adviser; Bob Fox, president; Bill DeSana, vice president; Marilyn Moyer, secretary; and Judy Korb and Terry Booher, treasurers.

Edelian

All the shouting, running here and there, and worrying seem worthwhile on Edelian day in June. The pictures taken and retaken, copy rewritten, and deadlines abhorred are justified when the "oh's" and "ah's" are heard. Early in the year the yearbook staff had its dreambook well in mind. Then came the arduous transfer of dream to reality. Though the 1957 annual may not quite be the book visualized in September, the staff sincerely hopes that it is an accurate portrayal of Libbey happenings.

Our thanks to Mr. L. F. Myers, engraver's representative, who has helped produce the Edelian for twenty years.

Crystal

Matt Kelb, editor
 Pam Ivers and Dick Heinz, reporters

To sell a school newspaper, top quality must be maintained at all times. Quality is the byword of the Crystal. Annually, staff members journey to the Bowling Green State University Journalism Conference and enter the paper for a Columbia Scholastic Press Association rating in March. The Crystal covers all news events concerning the school. It features editorials, club news, sports, cartoons, and the Inquiring Reporter. Through the hard work of the adviser, Miss Kay Quealy, the editors, and the reporters, the Crystal has become an integral part of Libbey.

Mr. Rustie, advisor, talking to the Student Council members.

Service to the school! This is the motto which the Student Council has ably carried out in its varied 1957 program. The object of service was a complete program of promoting good citizenship in our school. Among the activities which the Council supervised were the Area Sportsmanship Contest, the Magazine Drive, the Thanksgiving Day Green Campaign and Election, the election of the home room representatives, Libbey Loyalty Week, and the Clean up Campaign. Council also helped with various jobs in which all schools participated, such as, the Toledo Area

Teen-age Drive against Polio and the Area Student Council Dance. Home room representatives again functioned efficiently as coordinators between the Council and the student body and were of major assistance to Council in the Magazine Drive. Listed on the Council's social calendar were the football dance following the Libbey Central game, a spring roast, and a banquet after the Magazine Drive. Capably leading the group were Miss Shirley Haney and Principal Loy W. Rusie, advisers, Bill Stine, president, Peter Kakela, vice president, Judy Eisenmann, retary-treasurer, and Tom Waterman, sergeant-at-arms.

To discover and encourage original talent, to create enthusiasm for scholarship, and to promote enlightened leadership are the main objectives of the Periclean Literary Society. Peries sponsored the first tri-lit meeting at which Mr. Packer spoke entertainingly of his trip to Kashmir. Peries also helped make the tri-lit roast, tea, sox hop, and ball successful affairs. The annual banquet, the Christmas program, and the Thanksgiving mass meeting were other projects in line with the Peri motto, "Secundus nulli." "Second to None"

The Phils chalked up another busy year beginning with Loyalty Week and the Waite Mass Meeting. Football season ended triumphantly when Judy Harris was crowned queen. To fill the treasury, the club sold pencils and greeting cards. The "Sadie Hawkins" dance began a series of events including a part in the Tri-Lit Mother-Daughter Tea and the annual banquet. In a more serious vein, the Phils contributed a Christmas basket and sponsored a literary meeting at which Libbey student, Gudrun Lucks, spoke on Teen-Age Customs in Germany.

Zets observed their motto, "Nilul sine labore," "Nothing without work," by engaging in such activities as selling name cards to the seniors and devoting cards to underclassmen, planning the Macomber Mass Meeting, and sponsoring a tri-lit literary meeting. They also were working participants in the tri-lit roast, tea, and spring formal. Fudge and tag sales were money making ventures which helped finance the Zet scholarship for a deserving senior. Miss Aileen Fberth capably advised the group.

Forum

The school year 1956-57 was a productive one for the Forum Literary Society. Topping the social calendar for the year were the Forum-Perie Bi-Lit Ball and the Forum Senior Banquet. The Central Football Mass Meeting and a pep rally before the De Vilbiss Night Relays were all-student functions sponsored by the club. Welfare projects were a Christmas basket for a needy family and a seventy-five dollar college scholarship for a deserving senior.

Quill and Dagger

Service to the school, education, and fellowship were the goals attained by the Q.D.'s this year. During the Christmas season the Quill and Dagger sponsored a Yuletide program and a food basket for a worthy family. Along educational lines, the Q.D.'s held a monthly meeting with a speaker. The social program included a hayride and roast at Pearson Park with Dick Waterman as chairman, and a senior banquet and dance. Mr. George Miley aided in planning and supervising the activities of the group.

Libbey Hi-Y

Hi-Y officers: Tom Hauman, jr. cen., Le Roy Anderson
youth cen., Bill Marohn, v. pres., Bill DeSana, secy., Bill Bettridge, chaplain; Terry Severns, sgt.-at arms; John Luscombe, secy., and Skip Johnson, pres.

Their purpose of creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the home, school, and community the high standards of Christian character motivated Hi-Y members to help during B.I.E. Day, serve at the Football Banquet, sell papers for the benefit of the Old Newsboys, and sponsor members in the youth and government election. Social events of the past year were a fall hay ride, swims at the Central Y.M.C.A., a dance on Washington's Birthday, and a spring roast.

Ian Earl, chaplain, Judy Jenks, reporter, third row
Connors and Susie Behw, representative

Truly practicing their purpose of realizing in common life those ideals of personal and social living to which Christians are committed, the Senior Y-Teens sparked much of the 1957 activity about Libbey. With the help of their adviser, Miss Ruth Allen, they organized the Macomber Football Mass Meeting, sold mums for the Thanksgiving Day Game, scheduled a post football game dance, planned the Football Banquet, trimmed the Christmas tree in the main lobby, sold Christmas cards and wrapping paper, gave a Mothers' Tea, and sponsored the inspiring Lenten services.

With service and the attainment of knowledge up permost in their minds, the Junior Y-Teens were bound to complete a successful 1957. In the fall they made Thanksgiving favors for the State Hospital, and at Christmas time they created a Christmas spirit by caroling there. By way of gaining knowledge, the Y-Teens first heard Mr. Sheldon Steinhouser speak on human relations and then proceeded to enter the winning art project in the Area Y-Teens Brotherhood Contest. Jess Keller was the artist. Mrs. Nancy Davis sponsored the active group

Phenomenal is the word properly applied to the group of one hundred and thirty girls who banded themselves together this year as the Freshman Y-Teens. Anyone who has seen this huge group convene for a meeting in 245 has witnessed a miracle only possible within the democratic framework where the goal is Christian living. The newly organized club wasted no time in planning a well-rounded program. Among the interesting topics presented during the year were "Making Clothes More Attractive", by Mrs. Talbert, "Hair Styling," by Betty Bollinger, "Rumor Clinic," by Mrs. Brown, "Dating Do's and Don'ts," by Mrs. Taylor, and "Luella Cummings," by Miss Jane Cartwright. Frolicsome social occasion was the potluck and splash party at the Y W C A. for which Betty Smyth was chairman. Kudos to new Libbeyite, Mrs. Jean Hunsaker, who shepherded the enterprising group, and to capable officers, Sue Van Karsen, president; Jane Suzor, vice president, Dorothy Smilax, treasurer; and Janet Kellermann, secretary.

Debate Club — Junior Red Cross

Living up its purpose of furthering the art of debating and public speaking, the Debate Club met every Tuesday morning before school for consideration of pertinent topics. Important undertaking of the year was the debate with Woodward High School. The club also sponsored a candidate for queen for the first time. Planning this year's schedule were adviser, Mr. R. C. Baker, president, Bill DeSana, vice president, Sharon Jones; secretary, Dick Heaton; treasurer, Skip Johnson, and program chairman, Fred Smith. The Debate Club has met since its formation in 1929 on an entirely voluntary basis.

"We serve," the motto of the Junior Red Cross again guided the activities of the Libbey unit which is advised by Miss Virginia May. To gain knowledge for the club, the officers attended lectures at the Red Cross Blood Bank and observed a demonstration in home nursing by Mrs. Hackett, Director of Nursing in American Red Cross. Diligent working members served as hosts and hostesses for the annual party for patients at Toledo State Hospital, created hundreds of favors for the July 4th celebration at veterans' hospitals, and collected donations for Hungarian relief and care.

F. N. A. — Libbey Leaders

Living up to their purpose of increasing interest in nursing as a career, the Future Nurses of America visited Toledo hospitals and attended a tea at the Academy of Medicine. A Christmas party planned by Judy Johnson provided the necessary "off duty" relaxation. Capably combining duties as F.N.A. adviser with her duties as school nurse was Mrs. Florence Tanner. F.N.A. officers were Judy Jackson, president; Judy Johnson, vice president; Mary Ann Nietz, secretary; Judi Swartz, treasurer; and Linda Schmitt and Pat Harrison, reporters.

"What's the score?" was asked quite frequently during the year by Libbey Leaders as they engaged in such activities as intramural basketball and volleyball tournaments, Volleyball Sports Day for elementary schools, and Bowling Green Play Day. Serving as student assistants for the gym classes were Jessie Keller, president; Peggy Leister, vice president, Lillian Earl, secretary, and Vonnie Gurein, treasurer. Mrs. Jane Fisher and Mrs. Nancy Davis supervised Leader participation. Social outing of the year was the annual picnic in May at Side Cut Park.

F. T. A.

A preview of their chosen profession was given F.T.A. members who helped as substitute teachers this year. Another project designed to further professional understanding was the joint meeting of the Future Teachers with the Future Nurses and Future Business Leaders. Rounding out the program of work were visitations to Clay High School and Heidelberg College, representation at the F.T.A. state conference, and consultations with college students regarding college requirements. As in former years F.T.A. members joyously served a faculty tea in February.

"...wisdom from the past timely in the present" is the motto observed by the Classical Honor Society and the Junior Classical League. The two organizations combine to stimulate interest in Latin and classical civilization under the direction of advisor Mrs. Patricia P. Burton. Their extensive 1955-56 program included a tour of the University of Michigan and participation in the state and national conventions of the Junior Classical League at Ohio State University and Colorado Springs, Colorado. They were awarded first place in Ohio for classical activities in 1955-56.

Biology club officers: Secretary, Ann Grunst, president

To promote an interest in biology, a varied program of activities was scheduled by the Biology Club advisers, Miss Lydia Fiedler and Miss Lasetta Pickard, and officers, Ann Grunst, president; Susan Van Tassel, vice president; Nancy Kornath, secretary and Donald Hahn, treasurer. At one of the bi-monthly meetings a movie of her trip to Oregon was shown by Miss Pickard. Members also enjoyed the October Induction Party, the Christmas Party, and the Biology Quiz Show. A December sale of tasty cheese fingers helped fill the club treasury.

Promoting interest in good plays and developing talent of members are the chief goals of the Dramatics Club. Such outstanding plays as the senior production, "A Little Honey," and the junior offering, "Dear Ruth," helped make 1957 an enjoyable and advantageous year for the club. Social events included a breakfast in late February and the annual spring banquet. A scholarship was given to the member voted the most promising actor of the year. Club performances were directed by Miss Angela Costigan.

U. N.

Dedicated to promoting interest in world affairs and learning more about other countries, the U. N. Club scheduled an illustrated lecture on Germany by Dr. Bodenstedt and visited Lillian Hartman in Cardinal Health Center. Sandra Hartley arranged the U. N. picnic at Oak Openings in October, and Marilyn Miller was chairman for the U. N. banquet in April. Responsibility for guiding the club rested up on Miss Grace Irwin, adviser; Michael Cordner, president; Sandra Hartley and Marilyn Miller, vice presidents, first and second semester; Rosemary Wolfert, secretary-treasurer; and Sharon Cousino, chaplain.

Y. F. C.

Guided by its purpose of curbing juvenile delinquency and raising the spiritual and moral standards of Libbey, the Libbey Youth for Christ Club co-sponsored Y. F. C. rallies every second and fourth Saturday at Whitmer High School and brought a popular film, "Seventeen," to Libbey. Among the interesting speakers who addressed the club were Redd Harper of Hollywood and Wendy Collins, Y. F. C. International Director. Worthwhile social occasions were a Halloween party and a trip to hear Billy Graham in Detroit, Michigan. Miss Carol Kinney coordinated the group.

A prized possession of Libbey is its choir. As in former years, the 1957 choir brought praise and satisfaction once again to the school. The attractive blue and gold choir robes made Libbey history. Many tedious hours of preparation preceded the concert for Libbey students, the evening concert for the general public, and the excellent programs presented at the P.T.A. meetings, the T. J. State Hospital and the Art Museum. Anthems by the choir enhanced immeasurably the Lenten services. An octette of choir members entertained for the Eagle

Orchestra—Activities

This year the Libbey Orchestra strove to bring Libbey a new experience in music. Under the direction of conductor James Grabel, orchestra members successfully presented two fine concerts in February and March.

The orchestra also participated in the annual sale of yearbooks. Mr. Charles Matzinger, orchestra member, was in charge of the sale. The sale was a great success and the orchestra members were proud of their contribution.

1. The first part of the text discusses the importance of the first impression in a business meeting. It states that the first impression is often the only one that a person will have, and it can be the difference between getting a job or not. The text also mentions that the first impression is often based on appearance, so it is important to look professional and well-groomed.

March ever onward, lead to Victory

ROBERT CRAIG, a young man who died in the service of his country, is remembered by the people of this community. His death was a great loss to the community and to the country. He was a brave and noble man who gave his life for the freedom of his country. His memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Dedication of the Robert Craig
Memorial Bridge, January 8, 1957

Reaching for the Stars?

★ OF COURSE YOU ARE, why not? If you are ambitious... looking forward to the years ahead to whatever they will bring. To the big things of the future, to the way to reach the top in whatever field you select. It's good - this ambition - properly channelled, it leads to accomplishment, and security, and the good things you desire to have right now.

YOUR FIRST STEP is to select a job in which your talents can be explored and used most fully.

YOUR INTERESTS may lie in the field of electronics... or hydraulics, chemistry, mechanical engineering... or they may lean toward office work, or administration... or a job that gives interesting and rewarding occupations. Whatever your dreams, whatever your ambitions, we believe you can fulfill them at Auto-Lite, because Auto-Lite offers many opportunities in these and many other fields. Auto-Lite is the world's largest independent manufacturer of automotive electrical equipment, but that tells only part of the story. In short, we believe we are big enough, diversified enough to accept any ambition you set for yourself. WHEN YOU COME TO TALK to us bring your ambition... and your dreams. We're interested in young people who are reaching for the stars.

Libbey Fight Song

Thee! And our boys will Victory — gain! (Rah!

This system of musical notation features a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with a supporting bass line. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words like 'Thee!', 'And our', 'boys', 'will', 'Victory —', and 'gain!' aligned with specific notes. A vocal exclamation '(Rah!' is placed at the end of the system.

Rah!) While our team will bring you fame! (Team Rah!) And then our

The second system continues the melody. It includes the lyrics 'Rah!) While our team will bring you fame! (Team Rah!) And then our'. The musical notation shows a continuation of the treble and bass lines with various note values and rests.

glor - ious Lib - bey Ban - ner will tri - umph - ant

The third system contains the lyrics 'glor - ious Lib - bey Ban - ner will tri - umph - ant'. The melody is characterized by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, creating a rhythmic and energetic feel. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment.

The fourth system includes the lyrics 'be, And we will sing songs of Joy and'. The musical notation continues with a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, maintaining the song's tempo and mood.

Pride, And pledge our loy - al - ty to Thee.

1 2 sfz

The final system of the page contains the lyrics 'Pride, And pledge our loy - al - ty to Thee.' It concludes with a double bar line and two first/second endings. The first ending leads back to the beginning of the song, while the second ending is marked with a forte dynamic (sfz) and a final chord. The musical notation includes various articulation marks like accents and slurs.
